HAVERCAMP & Co. are making farm loans, three to five years. Interest 10 per cent. Write them, Provo, Utah.

THE only names visible in the procession last night, were those of Frank J. Cannon and C. E. Loose. The explanation is that the one put up the lip and the other the foot. Not a word of any other candidate. Perhaps neither Frankie nor Loose cares a d—n whether any others are elected or not.

THE Provo correspondent of the Salt Lake Tribune made an award transposition in the phraseology of the grand jury's report on the Frank Briggs case. His report published yesterday makes it appear that the grand jury ignored the case "in view of the position Mr. Briggs occupied as a teacher in the University of Utah." The truth is, the grand jury ignored the case, not because of his position but because there was no evidence brought before them and because that he was so thoroughly vindicated by the evidence that was brought before them, and considering his responsible public position that they felt it their duty to say as much to the public. Not one of the grand jury knows Mr. Briggs personally. Foreman Hutchison and some three or four members of the grand jury have asked that this statement be made, inasmuch as they have been importuned rather unpleasantly by some Tribune readers.

THE business transacted yesterday by the board of directors of the territorial insurance system was purely an only routine. All members except Smoot and Whitmore were present.

THAT was a cruel joke perpetrated yesterday by Josiah Beck on H. H. Pyne. When Frank Cannon arrived in town the vehicle he was in and the few others that followed came in so slowly and solemnly that the procession suggested a funeral train. The jeweler called upon the druggist to come and see the funeral. Herb's features fell when he saw what he did see.

AMONG the visitors to town last night were four boys from Springville, L. Roylance, M. E. Clark, H. Hanford and another whose name is thought to be Lighter. They arrived and proceeded at once to spend their money in the saloons. A mixture of beer, whisky and other liquors set their brains on fire, and they at once developed into hoodlums of the latest and most pronounced type. They had a peculiar desire for the Provo boys and an undertook to pummel some of them. One, a son of Thomas Fowler, got cut with a knife. Jim Sutherland did 'em up with a club, and then they sought their bags only to drive around the streets very furiously. Marshal Knight stopped them, but by this time Lighter had skipped. The other three spent the night in jail and this morning Justice Wedgwood fined them each $25.00 for their fun.

"FRIENDS" at the opera house tonight. If you would enjoy yourself tonight, see "Friends" at the opera house.

WORDS of praise for "Friends" would be superfluous. The play is strictly first class, and high-toned. It is well known and will be well patronized. Get your tickets early.

DOX CARLOS KNOW of this city pleaded not guilty this morning in the First District court to an indictment charging him with unlawful cohabitation. His trial will be had early in November.

MATLAND DUX and Tom Morgan, accused of assaulting one Patnode, with sheep shears and intent to kill, were brought down from the penitentiary this morning and pleaded not guilty to the indictment this afternoon. The trouble occurred in the western part of Milard county last July. It will be remembered that these are the men who gave Sheriff Hawley the long chase into Nevada after them.

It is said that C. A. Glaizer is still hot over the gross insult Boss Graham offered him last night at the rally and that the longer he broods over it the madder he gets. Albert should know that the Boss-Graham machine is a mighty thing and that it is as good on him as was evidenced at the Payson convention. He knows it now and it is said that his resignation from every position he holds in the republican organization is ready.

LAST evening when Mrs. Atkin announced that the republican ladies liked pretty men and preferred black hair to red, it is reported that Don Coray skunked off and ordered a half dozen bottles of hair dye, to be used for campaign purposes.

THE Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Calhounette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians and medicine about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial at Smoot Drug Co."

HAD TO GIVE BONDS.

A Delaware Marriage Formality That Struck Terror to One Bridegroom.

To get married seems an easy thing to the young man whose fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, but when it comes to the actual ceremony there are a thousand and one terrors which surround and threaten to overcome him. Marriage in some states is easy. In others it is difficult as obtaining a divorce.

A well known Philadelphian was about to be married to a beautiful young woman who lived in the state of Delaware. He had no idea that the marriage laws of that state were of an appalling nature. He had secured his license and thought that was all that was necessary.

"Have you filed your bond yet?" said some one to him the day before the wedding.

"What?" gasped he.

"Your bond," repeated the questioner. "You know every man who is married in this state has to file a bond for the protection of the state."

The bridegroom was rather dubious, but was finally persuaded that this was a fact.

"I'll see a lawyer about it in the morning," said he. So he went to a friend, who was a legal light, and said: "See here. They tell me I have to give a bond to the state when I get married."

"Certainly. Haven't you done so?" in a surprised way.

"No! I never heard of such a thing before. What kind of bond is it?"

"Oh, any old estate will do."

"But I haven't any real estate."

The lawyer looked at him a moment. Then he solemnly said:

"Haven't you any friends who own property?"

"None that I care to ask to bind it up that way. I can't ask my bride's relatives, you know."

"His friend looked at him pityingly. 'You can't postpone the wedding, can you?'"

"What?" fairly shrieked the unfortunate.

"Of course, of course not," said the legal light soothingly. But the poor bridegroom looked stricken.

"I'll tell you what I'll do, old man. I'll tend to the matter for you. Don't give yourself any more concern about it."

The young man about to be married grasped his hand, he could not speak for a moment, and then he poured forth his thanks. He picked up his hat in a relieved sort of way and walked to the door. Then he turned.

"By the way, I forgot to ask you how large is the amount of the bond required?"

"Fifty cents," said the lawyer.—Philadelphia Press.

New York Police announce.

It came out at the police board meeting in New York last month that whenever any big strike or riot has been going on out of town Superintendent Byrnes has obtained permission from the Western Union Telegraph company to tap its underground wire at Broadway and Houston street and receive prompt news direct from distant points.

Little of importance during the recent Chicago strike came into the Western Union office that he did not know about almost as soon as it reached the newspaper offices. The superintendent admitted that this arrangement had been of immense service to him, and that had the strike extended to within reasonable limits of New York city his arrangements were all perfected. The Western Union people have consented to make this arrangement permanent.

Salt Rheum—Intense Pain

Eruptions Healed and Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"We have used Hood's Sarsaparilla with great success in the case of our boy. When he was two years old, something resembling tetanus or salt rheum came out on his face. It was painful and owing to the intense itching, the little one could not refrain from scratching the flesh. His face became

An Awful Sight.

I applied different salves but they did not do any good. I had previously lost faith in doctors, so I decided he needed something for the blood, and having noticed Hood's Sarsaparilla highly recommended, I procured a supply. Its effects were quickly noticeable, the broken flesh healed over and he became more healthy. He is now seven years old and I have never noticed any signs of a return of the trouble. He is now strong and healthy as any boy of his age."
